Zonal gets a new look

Zonal, the UK's leading technology provider for the hospitality sector, has unveiled new branding as it looks to the future.

The family firm, that will be celebrating 40 years in business next year, has also used the new design to refresh the corporate website and launch a dedicated recruitment website. Zonal has invested in this new recruitment tool to help facilitate its expansion and to find the best people to add to its 500-strong team located across the UK, including its head office in Tanfield, Edinburgh.

Zonal is looking to create 100 additional jobs as the tech giant continues to invest record levels in R&D, in excess of £5million, and introduce innovative products during 2018, which will secure its position as market leader.

Chief Executive Stuart McLean said: "I am so proud of Zonal and the journey we have taken over the last 39 years, and our new brand is modern and reflective of our ambitious growth plans for the next decade and beyond."

Zonal is the leading provider of integrated hospitality management solutions to over 15,000 leisure and hospitality businesses across the UK. For almost 40 years, the company has been working closely with clients to enhance the customer experience through market leading technology, experienced people and a partnership approach to business.
