Zonal is the readers' choice

Zonal has been voted the Best EPOS brand by readers of Restaurant magazine and BigHospitality.co.uk for the second consecutive year.

The Readers' Choice Awards are in their tenth year and considered the pinnacle of success as they are voted for by customers and not industry bodies. Hundreds of hospitality professionals from across the restaurant and pub sector voted in the annual awards which recognised 23 categories, ranging from Best Fish Supplier, through to Best Service Company to Best Gadget.

Zonal was recognised for its Aztec EPOS system, which is used in over 16,000 hospitality businesses throughout the UK.

Zonal's chief executive, Stuart McLean, said: "It's fantastic to receive this vote of public approval for the second year in a row. We operate in a highly competitive marketplace, but this award is testament to the Zonal team that strives each and every day to deliver the very best in terms of product and service."
